"This Month In History"

MARCH

1918: Daylight saving time is enacted nationwide and time zones are set when the Standard Time Act is signed into law.

1941: The pioneering squadron of African American military aviators known as the Tuskegee Army is activated for service in World War II.

1962: In a historic NBA game, Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors scores 100 points playing against the New York Knicks. It's still the record for most points scored in a single game.

1974: People magazine debuts. The popular celebrity news publication's first issue featured actress Mia Farrow on its cover.

1987: To recognize and honor the achievements of American women, Congress declares March as National Women's History Month. The observance began in 1980 as a weeklong celebration.

2006: Using an early version of Twitter (now called X), the world's first tweet is posted. The social networking platform went live to the public later that summer.

2020: The World Health Organization declares the outbreak of the COVID-19 virus a global pandemic.
